

Pizza & Perspectives presents

Election 2012 One Week Later:

An Analysis by Mason Faculty

Tuesday, November 13th 2012

6:00pm-7:15pm

Founders Multipurpose Room 125/126

In 1858 Lincoln famously said "A House divided cannot stand" -- How divided are we, and where are the lines? Both candidates promised bipartisan progress on the challenges the nation faces at home and abroad. Can the winner possibly deliver? Can the extraordinary gridlock in Congress be solved? Will we be able to avoid the catastrophic sequestration process and the "Fiscal Cliff" or another debt ceiling impasse in 2013? Mason's panel of experts will tackle these questions and more based on the election results.

Featuring

Richard Norton Smith

Scholar in Residence,
History & Art History

Toni-Michelle Travis

Associate Professor,
Public & International Affairs

Jeremy Mayer

Associate Professor/Director,
Masters of Public Policy,
School of Public Policy

University Life
Arlington

LIVING • LEARNING • LEADING

Pizza & Perspectives

FREE Pizza and Soda provided by University Life!